Thanksgiving At Trump SoHo, New York

By Sherrie Wilkolaski

The Spot - Trump
SoHo New York

Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday. It is the first taste of the holiday season here in the United States and the majority of my favorite Thanksgiving memories have been spent here in the Big Apple. Coming together with family and friends, celebrating all we have to be thankful for and indulging in holiday delights is what life is all about. If you're looking to treat yourself this year and celebrate Thanksgiving in luxury this holiday season, the Trump SoHo New York is offering just that. They have designed an over-the-top Thanksgiving penthouse experience for holiday travelers looking to enjoy a decadent gathering with friends and family.

This holiday getaway weekend has something for everyone. I recently visited the Trump SoHo New York, which is the only AAA Diamond property located in Manhattan, and got a taste of their upcoming Thanksgiving getaway experience. There is no better city in the world to be in than New York on Thanksgiving weekend. Travelers can experience all that the Big Apple has to offer. Take in the famous Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, hit shops in trendy boutiques of SoHo or make your way to Fifth Avenue for an afternoon of luxe holiday shopping on Black Friday. Here are some of the highlights:

Private Penthouse Dining Experience

There will be no dishes to wash after this Thanksgiving dining experience. With the comforts of home in your penthouse suite, you'll enjoy an exclusive culinary evening prepared by Executive Chef Brian Lee. He will customize your holiday occasion with a private dinner for up to 10 people, with a Thanksgiving menu based upon guests' favorite family traditions and recipes. Sweeping floor-to-ceiling views of the city skyline will serve as guests' backdrop, as they enjoy a decadent feast fit for New York's finest in a festive penthouse decorated by Trump SoHo's seasoned events team.

Spa-Goers Pumpkin Delight

Ladies, you are going to relish Pumpkin Body Polish Treatment offered at The Spa at Trump SoHo. I spent an afternoon enjoying the full body treatment and lingering in the spa lounge, soaking in the serenity and skyline. Given that it was a pumpkin experience, I wasn't sure if I would enjoy it, but it was incredible. Products were by June Jacobs Spa Collections, including; the Perfect Pumpkin Peeling Enzyme Masque, Perfect Pumpkin Enzyme Polish and the Citrus Body Balm. There was a subtle hint of pumpkin aroma, which was very calming, and it provided a mellow comfort with each breath. The Citrus Body Balm rounded out my massage experience and it had just enough citrus to wake me from my pumpkin-induced relaxation. I felt so completely refreshed that it carried me through the weekend, and I found myself longing for another trip to The Trump Spa for more. Great holiday weekend experience!

Football Fans Have Front Row Seats

American football fans won't miss a minute of game day during their Thanksgiving penthouse getaway. Located on the top floors of the 46-story Trump SoHo, the spacious penthouse suites command expansive floor-to-ceiling views of Manhattan or the Hudson River, with open floor plans that are perfect for entertaining. Penthouses range from 1,600 to 2,300 square feet, including the premier Duplex Penthouse that features two 46" Bang & Olufsen BeoVision 10 televisions and the Bang & Olufsen BeoPlay A9 sound system. This is fantastic for those who can't miss out on a hearty helping of Thanksgiving football.

Endless Luxury Amenities

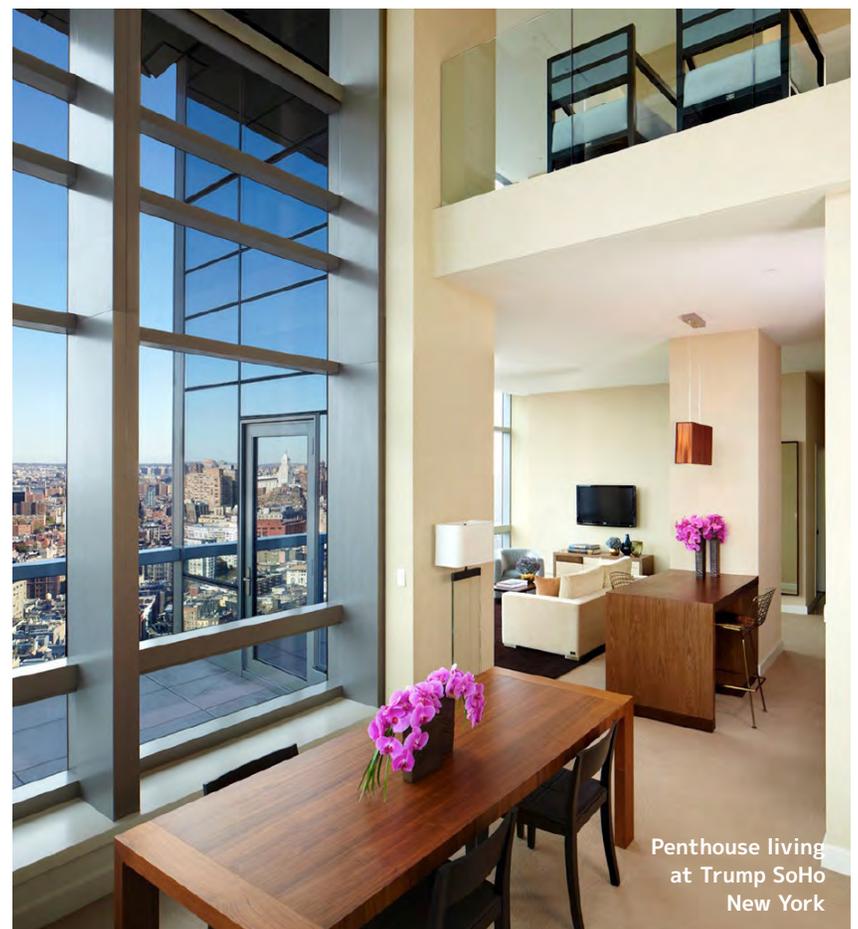

After the gourmet meal settles, you can stay nestled in your penthouse suite overlooking the city or you can head down to The Spot, the onsite lounge that is glamorous and sexy. It's outfitted in tufted leather banquettes, gold hued lanterns, and a DJ booth. Bottle service is available. If that is not your scene, why not make arrangements via the Trump Attaché™ program? Anything your heart desires will be waiting at your fingertips. Trump Attaché delivers personalized attention without intrusion, offering a comprehensive brand of VIP treatment on request, and even sometimes before it.

Pets Are Welcome

Pets are welcome at The Trump SoHo, and you won't have to spend the holiday away your furry friend. The Trump® Pets program provides a luxe experience for your four-legged loved ones, with gourmet treats and their own plush dog bed. Dog-walking services can even be arranged through the concierge or Trump Attaché™. There is a pet-friendly in-room dining menu with special pet-friendly treats, water bowl and fresh bottled water, and toys. Guests are provided with a map of the city, highlighting fun outdoor dog-friendly parks. Spending the holiday with your pet just got more luxurious!

The Thanksgiving Penthouse Experience is available for stays from November 27-30 at a starting rate of $7,000 per night, excluding food and beverage costs, which will be booked separately through the hotel's catering team. Guests must prepay and book at least two weeks prior to arrival. To reserve, please call 212.842.5500 or email TrumpSoHo@TrumpHotels.com. This boutique hotel is offering one of the most luxurious holiday experiences in Manhattan, so be sure to reserve your penthouse early.
